IMPORTANT: Containers hold up to 230 lbs. of sand. To achieve minimum base weight, it is necessary to pack sand into all areas of each container and add water.

Remove cap from add-on weight container (Fig. 7). Fill container with 1/2 a bag of sand, approximately 25 lbs. (Fig. 8). Tilt container on its side (Fig. 9) and pack sand deep into corners while container is tilted (Fig. 10). Add 1/4 gallon of water. Once water sinks into sand, pack sand down again. Add remaining bag of sand to container, while continuing to pack sand down. Add another 1/4 gallon water to container. Once water sinks into sand, add additional sand to container until full. Remove/clean excess sand from container cap and threads. Secure cap on container. Repeat process with each container.
